

THINGS TO DO AT WORLD FINALS

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY RECREATION FACILITIES

Team members must provide the attached medical release form to register and participate in any recreational activities. Towels, racquets, basketballs, etc. may be checked out at the recreation centers. Campus recreation activities include the following:

- Swimming
- Volleyball
- Ping Pong
- Billiards
- Basketball
- Foosball
- Bowling
- Rock Wall Climbing*

Requires parental release form at time of climb/see page 13*

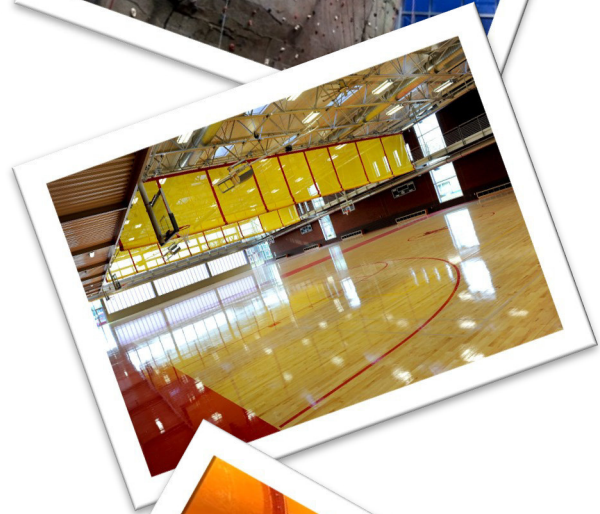

FURMAN AQUATIC CENTER

Just a quick bus ride from campus, and three blocks from Frederiksen Court, the Furman Aquatic Center includes a 550-foot lazy river with a waterfall and two tremendous water slides both more than 200 feet in length. There is also a 50-meter pool that boasts another huge 150-foot drop slide, basketball hoops, floatables, 3-meter platform, 1 meter spring board and multiple lanes to accommodate both recreational and competitive swimmers alike. When planning for the day in the sun:

- Pack a towel so that you have one for either our indoor or outdoor pool options.
- Remember to bring sunscreen.
- Children (12 and under) must pass a deep water test before entering the 13 foot area (diving boards / drop slide) or five foot area (lap swim area).

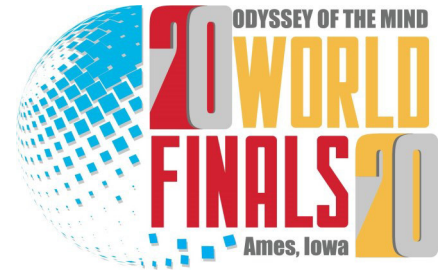

CREATIVITY FESTIVAL

Visit Lied Rec Center and have fun at the Creativity Festival. There is a wide variety of interactive booths, entertainment, OMER's pins, creative challenges and more! Don't forget to stop by the Odyssey Angels booth, and meet the 2020 Odyssey Angels! The festival runs Thursday-Saturday, and is a great place to meet and make new friends!

CYtes

OF AMES AND IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY.

Ames, Iowa: #1 College City/Towns in America ... #1 Best Town in Iowa ... #7 of the Happiest Small Places in America ... #5 of the Most Beautiful College Campuses in the World ... where else would you want to be? Nowhere! Because Ames is an exCYting place to be! After you arrive and you are in-between competitions and your pins are all traded, what should you do? Check out these CYtes of Ames!

NATURE CONNECTS: ART WITH LEGO® BRICKS

Reiman Garden's exhibit, Nature Connects, will highlight some of the earth's most spectacular creatures. The latest and last series of "Nature Connects: Art with LEGO® Bricks", will be on exhibit during World Finals. And includes sculptures constructed entirely of LEGO® bricks bringing life-size-and-larger forms of species that are threatened, endangered, and even extinct. Reiman Gardens is a year round attraction, featuring distinct gardens both indoors and outdoors, a Conservatory with seasonal displays, a Butterfly Wing, Gift Shop, and beauty for all to enjoy and share. For more information, visit reimangardens.com/exhibition/

FIND CY

Go on the hunt for Iowa State University's and Ames' favorite mascot, CY! Locate the CY that wears a suit of mirrors in downtown Ames. Find the "What I Love about ISU" CY at Reiman Gardens. And just where is the "CY the Dentist Guy" statue with the giant toothbrush? CyclONE City was created as a tour of life-sized CY statues throughout the Ames community to raise funds for local charities and ISU scholarships. 30 themed CY statues can be found around town. For more information visit thinkames.com/maps/cyclone-city-tour-cy-statues/

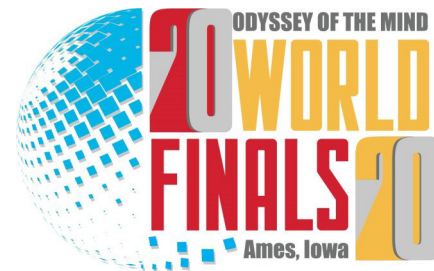

AN ART-FULL CAMPUS

University Museums: Iowa State University is home to the largest campus public art program in the United States with over 2,000 major public works of art. Visit the Christian Petersen Art Museum, Brunner Art Museum, Art on Campus Collection and Elizabeth and Byron Anderson Sculpture Garden located all across the campus. For more information visit museums.iastate.edu.

CYtes

OF AMES AND IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY.

DO DOWNTOWN

With more than 50 locally-owned specialty retail shops and restaurants, Downtown Ames is the perfect destination to stroll along the beautiful sidewalks, visit with the friendly shop owners and grab a bite to eat at any of the local restaurants. Visit the Ames History Museum and discover fascinating local stories, explore changing exhibits, hear engaging programs, delve into research materials and select unique Ames-related gift shop items. For more information visit amesdowntown.org

CAMPING OUT IN CAMPUSTOWN

Ames' Campustown district has a fun and unique atmosphere for diverse dining and shopping. Try one of our local pizzerias, the college student's dietary staple. Grab a Starbucks coffee and pair it with one of the many eclectic dining options in Campustown. Find your Cyclone souvenirs at Dogtown University or Barefoot Campus Outfitter. You are sure to get the full collegiate experience no matter where you go. For more information visit amescampustown.com.

NEED SUPPLIES?

For a quick prop freshen-up, here are just a few of the convenient options available to get just what you need!

- Hobby Lobby | 515.232.3500, 620 Lincoln Way
- HyVee Drugstore | 515.233.9855, 500 Main Street
- Lowe's Home Center | 515.233.0404, 120 Airport Road
- Menard's | 515.232.1986, 700 SE 16th Street
- Sam's Club | 515.233.9750, 305 Airport Road
- Target | 515.663.9500, 320 South Duff Avenue
- University Bookstore | 515.294.5684, Iowa State Memorial Union
- Union Copy Center | 515.294.0008, Room 0303 Memorial Union
- Wal-Mart (north) | 515.441.8131, 3015 Grand Avenue
- Wal-Mart (central) | 515.956.3536, 534 South Duff Avenue

Ames is a smart choice to visit!

Check out all there is to do at thinkames.com or call us at 515.232.4032.

